Past and present were colliding

Rachel Davis had always believed that as long as she kept the elements of her world separate, she'd make out just fine. There was her thriving business, her family, her childhood home . . . and Kane Walker.

But Kane saw things differently. First he intruded on her Sierra retreat, then beguiled the grandmother who'd raised her. As he had six years before, he set out to prove that he belonged in every part of her life... .
